Her Passengers Barely Escaped From the Dismantled Ship.

The Vessel is a Total Loss-Beaufort is Wrecked and Half the Inhabitants Drowned-Over One Million Dol-lars Loss at Charleston, S. C.

DSAVANNAH, Ga., Aug. 31.-The City of Savannah is a wreck on Hunting island, off the east coast of South Carolina.

The steamer went ashore there Sun-day night. The City of Birmingham arrived at 7 o'clock Wednesday night with the passengers and crew of the wrecked vessel.

The flag of the City of Savannah hung over her side. The passengers were rescued by a tug from Beaufort and transferred to the City of Birmingham.

The City of Savannah is a total loss and lies high and dry on the beach.

Capt. Fennie, of the steamer Bessie, arrived from Beaufort, St. Helena and Bluffton half an hour before the City of Birmingham, says that Beaufort is wrecked and that on the sea island the loss of life among the colored people is very great. Fully half the population of the island is drowned. The coast is covered with wrecks. Capt. Savage sent a letter by a boat to Beaufort Monday morning. Collector of Customs Small sent the tug Cecilia to the stranded vessel and took the passengers off the City of Savannah. That was the first news received that the steamer was lost.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 31.-The cyclone is ended; the city has started to repair the damages, while yet almost shut off from communication with the outer world.

The sight presented Tuesday was a familiar one to people of this city-a city almost in ruins, the streets and thoroughfares strewn with debris from the roofs of stores and dwellings, the roadways blocked by hundreds of giant trees uprooted from the earth, side walks strewn with crumbling brick and mortar, courts, alleys and by-paths under water, the magnificent water front, with its costly docks, where the fleets of a continent could be berthed, piled with wreckage, many churches unroofed and almost every residence in the city more or less damaged. Water and wind had played havoe in the old city by the sea, and had laid waste some of its pleasantest places.

The work of reconstruction began in the small hours of dawn, and while the fierce gale was still howling through the town, threatening almost to annihilation. Along the by-ways and on the thoroughfares could be seen the hewers of wood, the African-American city of Charleston, true to the instinct of his race, armed with big and little hatchets, clearing away the debris with a provident eye for extra firewood. A few minutes later away up King street, a battalion of stalwart workmen, armed with axes, saws, picks and spades, commenced working their way down the streets, followed close in the pensable bob-tails of the street railway on its march from Line street to the

As they progressed southward, almost in the teeth of the gale, a hedge of evergreen arose in each side of the roadway and the street car. The first step toward a return from chaos to civilization is once more in evidence.

A rough estimate places the losses at something over $1,000,000. There are no lights in the city, both gas and electricity have given out, and there has been no railroad communication south of us. The total loss of life is six people.

Augusta, Ga., Aug. 31.—News received Wednesday night brings the startling intelligence that seventy dead and swollen bodies were taken from the Coosa river Wednesday by searching parties. Not one-half of the horrors of the storm has yet been told, as messengers from surrounding sections are arriving hourly, bringing news of deaths and terrible havoc caused by Sunday's gale.

The result of Wednesday's work of the relief party puts the number of missing at over a hundred, but owing to poor means of communication correct lists of the dead can not be obtained. In several places along the Coosa river were found eight or ten convulsions, neuralgia, apoplexy, dyspepsia, sleeplessness, paralysis, nervous prostration, epilepsy, etc. The outlook would certainly

James D. Martin's Good Luck. WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The commissioner of internal revenue Wednesday appointed James D. Martin, of Columbus, an inspector in the service, with headquarters at New Orleans Mr. Martin' democracy has been of no uncertain character in the past and his appointment is a well-deserved recognition of consistency in politics.

In the House WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.-The house devoted the time entirely to a discussion over the matter of adoption of rules. The section depriving the speaker of power to decide whether or not a motion is dilatory was retained. There was a long discussion over the question of increase of committee on rules from five members to nine. Senator Gray's Opinion. Washington, Aug. 31.—Senator Gray of Delaware, a warm personal friend of President Cleveland, says he has no doubt that the extra session of congress will remain in session and run into the regular session. He believes the tariff will be taken up as soon as the financial issues are out of the way. McAutiffe's Narrow Escape. LONDON. Aug. 31.-Jack McAuliffe, the American champion pugilist, while swimming at Brighton, came near being drowned. Any of the above difficulties, and many more, are advance symptoms of insanity or someother equally deplorable con-dition ending in suicide or premature death.

His Restorative Nervine is a positive means of relief. If you have any nervous affection attend to it at once. Do not wait till your intellect is shattered or the frenzy of suicide overcomes it at once. Do not wait till your intellect is shattered or the frenzy of suicide overcomes you. Delay is daigerous.

Rev. J. R. Miller. Pastor of the M. E. church, Big Run, Pa., writes: "Overwork caused me to break down completely. The efforts of several good doctors, and eight weeks of travel, did me little good. I could not read or study, and my condition was serious. I began using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, four bottles of which completely cured me. Accept my gratitude."

"I was taken sick last April, and had the attendance of three of our best physicians. The result was that at the end of four months I was a helpias invalid, could not eat, and did not get thirty minutes' sleep in 24 hours. Lest 56 pounds in weight. Four weeks ago I began using Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, Restorative Tonic and Nerve and Liver Pills. Have gained 36 pounds in weight, can eat and sleep, and feel as well as I ever did."—J. C. Stephens, Carlisle, Pa.

"I was afflicted with nervous prostration over two years, and during that time was unable to perform any work. Through the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine I am entirely restored to health, and able to conduct my business the same as before my sickness. I recommended the Nervine to a young man also suffering from nervous prostration, and he too, received wonderful benefit from it. Dr. Miles' remedies are considered a panacon at our house."—W.S. STARTLING SITUATION.

The Government Receipts $11,000,000 Behind the Expenses Since July 1.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Secretary
Carlisle in a monthly statement to be issued Thursday shows that the gov-ernment receipts since July 1 have fallen behind the expenses eleven and one-half million dollars. There is a falling off of two-thirds in the customs and one-third in the internal revenue receipts. The disbursements for the week past have been made in gold because there has been no currency on hand to make the payments. The gold reserve is now down to $90,000,000. It is claimed that Carlisle can issue bonds, but he will not do this while congress is in session. Instead of doing this he will send a message to congress asking for relief. He will probably urge the issuance of bonds to the amount of from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000, redeemable in from two to five years at 3 per cent. The bonds will be payable in currency, but not necessarily in gold.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND

And His Family Leave Gray Gables, and

BUZZARD'S BAY, Aug. 81 .- The president, Mrs. Cleveland, baby Ruth and the nurse sailed Wednesday afternoon on the Oneida. They left Gray Gables about 10 o'clock and the first stop was made at Mr. Benedict's summer home, where they will remain for a few days the guests of Mr and Mrs. Benedict.

Baby Ruth and the nurse drove to the post office Wednesday noon. They were given a sort of a reception by the crowd that had gathered at the village. When they returned to Gray Gables their trunks had already been placed on the yacht.

The president is looking better than he has since the Chicago convention. He told a friend that he felt in the best of spirits and was fully prepared to take up his work at Washington. The story about him suffering from a cancer is believed, but of course no one dares mention it to him.

A Fatal Quarrel.

Athens, O., Aug. 31.—Robert Cozad and John Irwin quarreled at an early hour Wednesday morning on their way home from a dance near town. A freefor-all fight followed, in which the friends of the men took part. Cozad pulled a 38-caliber revolver from his pocket and shot Irwin in the neck, inflicting a probably fatal injury. There was an old grudge existing between the men, and a woman is said to be the cause of the trouble. Cozad says that the injury was the result of an acci-dent and that he did not know the gun was loaded.
